

Annual Report -2017-18

34th Annual prize distribution and “Aagam 2018 inaugurated at St. Thomas College.

The 34th Annual Cultural Fest and Aagam 2018 has been inaugurated in St. Thomas College in a very extravagant manner. The Chief Guest of the program was Shri .Prem Prakash Pandey (Minister Higher Education Chhattisgarh) and guest of honor His grace Dr. Joseph Mar Dionysius and Cooperator Shri. Rambahadur Singh. The other dignitaries present in the program were Administrator of the college Rv. Fr George Mathew Rambhan, Principal Dr. M.G.Roymon, Student union incharge and co-ordinator of the Fest Dr. Debjani Mukherjee, President of student union Miss. Simran Wadhwan, and other office bearers. The function commenced with the invocation of God’s Blessings and with the floral welcome of the dignitaries. Principal Dr. M.G.Roymon in his address discussed about the ups and downs of the college in these long 33 years of its journey and appreciated the students who reached their heights and marked their position in their respective career. Chief Guest Shri Prem Prakash Pandey in his speech spoke about the dedication of the students towards their work and their responsibilities towards the society and nation. He further in his speech emphasized the difficulties which the students face in this competitive world and the way to overcome it. He congratulated students for their sincere efforts in this festival of unity. His grace Dr. Joseph Mar Dionysius in his speech spoke about the success of the college from the year 1984 and not only proved it position in the field of research but also enriched its position in the field of sports, library ,and quality of staff. He congratulated the students for their bright future; he further honored the chief guest with the memento as a token of memory. Further the 34th prize distribution ceremony was celebrated in magnificent way. His Grace Dr. Joseph mar Dionysus and Administrator Rt. Rev Fr .George Mathew Ramban honored the outstanding students who excelled in the academic and non- Academic and other Co-Curricular activities.Prizes and certificates were distributed among the university merit holders. Miss Madhu Yadav of B.A. Final and Mr. Parth Sharma of BAJMC were felicitated with certificates of merit by the college for securing gold medal in the university merit list. Other students who secured position in the university merit were also honored with prizes and Certificates.

In sports 44 students were felicitated for representing the college at national and all India central Zone. Ever rolling trophies in the memory of Mr. Rohit Shrivastava, Mr. Chandranshu

Khandelwal , Mr.K.R. Raghavan and Abbey Mathew Memorial Award were bagged by the students performing outstanding in both academic and non academic field . The day came to end with the mesmerizing performance of the students in voice of Aagam. The Proshows for the next two days are Dance and Face of Aagaam. The program was conducted by Dr.Susan Abraham Head, Dept of Management and Vote of Thanks was proposed by president student union council Miss Simran Wadwan. .